EPHESIANS

"And God raised us up with Christ and seated us with him in the heavenly realms in Christ Jesus, in order that in the coming ages he might show the incomparable riches of his grace, expressed in his kindness to us in Christ Jesus."

How glorious will the new heaven and earth be? God declared in Isaiah 65:17, “Behold, I will create new heavens and a new earth. The former things will not be remembered, nor will they come to mind.” In that day, we will not remember the Grand Canyon, Mount Everest, Niagara Falls, or any other magnificent scenery here on Earth. We will not recall their splendor, nor will we even want to do so. Such will be the glory and spectacle of the new heaven and new earth.

Bruce Scott (FOI)

This event should remind us that, apart from two things in this world — God’s Word and human souls — everything we see today is going to be burned up in the end. Since that is the case, perhaps we should ask ourselves how much time, energy, and resources do we want to invest in temporal things instead of eternal things? As Peter reminded us, “Since everything will be destroyed in this way, what kind of people ought you to be? You ought to live holy and godly lives as you wait eagerly for the day of God to come” (2 Peter 3:11-12).

Bruce Scott (FOI)

“The purpose of Matthew 13 is to offer new truths about the kingdom program in light of Israel’s rejection of Jesus. The kingdom will not be established with Jesus’ first coming. Instead, an inter-advent age will occur where the kingdom program proceeds as the the message of the kingdom and the growth of kingdom citizens occurs alongside the work of the devil. But when Jesus returns a second time in judgment, He will separate the sons of the kingdom from the sons of the evil one and then the sons of the kingdom will partake in Jesus’ kingdom. With Matthew 13 we see clearly for the first time that the kingdom program involves two comings of Jesus and what this means for the period between these two comings.”
