Title: "Living Under the Rainbow" (Genesis 9:1-19)

REVIEW:

1. _____ of the flood. See 7:11-12 cp. with 8:14 = 370 days.

2. _____ for the flood.

If Genesis 5 and 11 genealogies are "closed", the date for the flood would be _____ B.C.

"Not all young-earth creationists agree on this age. Some believe that there may be small gaps in the genealogies of Genesis 5 & 11 and put the maximum age of the earth at about 10,000-12,000 years."

3. _____ for the flood.

4. Final thoughts on the flood:

A. God _____ (see 2 Pet. 3:3-10)

B. God does not leave Himself with a _____ in the world.

1) _____ witness (natural)

2) _____ witness (special)

C. God not only had a man, God had a _____: "build an ark".

The ark points to Jesus. He is the "ark of salvation" for everyone who puts his/her trust in him!

1) Just as the Ark was provided by God, Christ was _____ from heaven.

2) There was only _____ ark provided, and it had only _____ door. There's only one way to be saved today; it is thru Jesus Christ. See Jn 14:6; Acts 4:12; Jn 10:7, 9; Mt. 7:14-15).

3) The Ark saved _____ who entered. Today, the gospel promise is, "everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved" (Rom. 10:13).

4) Once the door was shut, no one else could enter. You've been given a precious gift — "the gift of _____." "Man is destined to die once, & after that to face judgment" (Heb. 9:27)

GOD ESTABLISHES A NEW BEGINNING (9:1-3)

1. A _____ but _____ command (cp. 1:28a).

2. Humans are given permission to use _____ for food (cp. 1:29-30).

Before, everyone was a vegetarian. Now it is permissible to hunt animals for food and to raise animals for meat.

GOD PUTS FORTH A NEW COMMAND (9:4-7)

1. There is basically only one rule: “ _____ ”.
2. This is the biblical foundation for _____ ”.
Still in force today. See Romans 13:1-7; 1 Peter 2:13-14.
3. The reason (vs. 6b): “for in the _____ of God has God made man”.

Something to Think About:

Can the State extend this God-given authority to individuals? For example, the State of Indiana has given its citizens the right to defend themselves and their families (i.e. the castle law; stand-your-ground law)? Does God recognize and honor this delegation of authority?

4. Each one of us is unique and valuable and worthy of respect and honor and protection.

GOD GIVES A NEW PROMISE (9:8-17)

1. It is an _____ covenant.
2. It is a covenant _____ with a _____.
3. This is the _____ great covenant of the Bible.
God’s relationship with man is always mediated through one or more of the biblical covenants:
 - A. The _____ covenant (Gen. 6:18; 9:8-17)
 - B. The _____ covenant (Gen. 15:1-21; 17:1-22; 26:2-5, 24; 28:13-17)
 - 1) _____
 - 2) _____
 - 3) _____
 - C. The _____ covenant (Exo. 19-20, 24)
 - D. The _____ covenant (with Phinehas; Num. 25:10-13)
 - E. The _____ covenant (2 Sam. 7:12-16)
 - F. The _____ covenant (Jer. 31:31-34)

Five are unconditional, irrevocable, everlasting, and by grace; only the Mosaic covenant was conditional, revocable, temporary, and by works.
