Talk Thru the Bible – Volume 1 (1983)

Bruce Wilkinson and Kenneth Boa

The Message of Zechariah:

“For a dozen years or more, the task of rebuilding the temple stood half completed. Zechariah is commissioned by God to encourage the people in their unfinished responsibility. Rather than exhorting them to action with strong words of rebuke, Zechariah seeks to encourage them to action by reminding them of the future importance of the temple. The temple must be built, for one day Messiah’s glory will inhabit it. But future blessing is contingent upon present obedience. The people are not merely building a structure; they are building the future. With that as their motivation, they can enter into the building project with wholehearted zeal, for their Messiah is coming!”

From Moses to Malachi: Surveying the Old Testament (2012) by Dr. Kenneth Hanna

Message:

“Zechariah speaks out of the context of the occupation of Jerusalem by Gentiles and the domination of Israel by Gentile nations (cp. with Ezra 4-6; 9:7-9). The present situation of Zion (Jerusalem) and Israel is in stark contrast to the future God has planned for the city and the nation. The key to their future restoration and glory is the coming of the Messiah. Both the first and the second advents of the Messiah are announced and explained. This twofold coming of the Messiah is the primary theme of Zechariah’s prophecy. To capture both advents it is necessary to select two passages. The first advent is announced in 9:9 and the second in 14:3-4, 9.”

ZECHARIAH

“Rejoice greatly, O Daughter of Zion! Shout, Daughter of Jerusalem! Behold, your king comes to you, righteous and having salvation, gentle and riding on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey. . . . Then the LORD will go out and fight against those nations, as he fights in the day of battle. On that day his feet will stand on the Mount of Olives, east of Jerusalem, and the Mount of Olives will be split in two from east to west, forming a great valley, with half of the mountain moving north and half moving south. . . . The LORD will be king over the whole earth. On that day there will be one LORD, and his name the only name.”

Zechariah: The LORD Will Return to Zion!

Key verse: 9:9, Rejoice greatly O Daughter of Zion! See, your king comes to you, righteous and having salvation,

Key words:

*LORD Almighty,
Jerusalem,
On that day,
Shepherd,
King*
