

Our Passion: Pursuing the Lost

We want our community to be glad that we are here. As Christ's disciples, we are his hands and feet. We engage our community creatively, in ways that demonstrate God's love. We live incarnationally, following Jesus' example. Our hearts grieve at the brokenness around us – but we have the solution. The gospel is good news! We share it with our neighbors, coworkers, friends, and family. We passionately pursue the lost, loving them as Jesus does.

Our Commission: World Mission

Billions are unreached with the gospel, and we desire to remedy this. The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few – we pray to the Lord to send more workers into the field. Jesus has commissioned us to make disciples of all nations. To accomplish this, we actively challenge, equip, and send our people to reach the lost globally. We generously support field workers financially, do battle on their behalf through prayer, and assist them through short-term trips. We encourage a multiplication of healthy, gospel-centered churches around the world.

Discussion Questions:

What most caught your attention today regarding pursuing the lost or world missions?

What verses/quotes/thoughts most stood out to you?

How were you challenged today because of this message? How were you encouraged?

What would you like to learn more about because of today's message?

Thinking of today's message and how God has already been working in your heart and mind, what next steps is God asking of you to take the Gospel to your neighbors? Your community? To places where the Gospel has not yet spread?

How well do you know the neighbors who live closest to you? What would you like to do in your neighborhood to build relationships with your neighbors?

What part of McCoy's Missions program do we do well? What could we do better?

What suggestions and ideas do you have that you would like to see the missions committee and/or deacons consider regarding our Missions program?

Considering the transition our church has been going through for the past year or so, what do we need to be most mindful of when considering our Missions program?

What would you like to communicate to the Deacons, speakers, or Transition Team regarding the Forward Together series over the past six weeks?